BRAND OVERVIEW

TH Clothes was born in 2006 with the creation of its logo and the first products, the Delta sweatshirt. The brand appears on the market in order to address the need to provide certified quality products at a fair price. From 2010 to 2015, the brand has grown exponentially in the Portuguese market and has designed 16 new products. 2015 was also the year of internationalization of the brand that already has sales to 12 countries in Europe.

2016 was a big year for TH Clothes. The brand presented 37 new products, seeking to satisfy their customers' needs at all levels.

Because it needed to consolidate and expand, TH Clothes bet in 2017 on strengthening its permanent stock, doubling it, with approximately 6 million articles ready to ship in 24 hours for the national market and in 2 to 5 days for the European market, with sales to 27 countries. It presented 2 new articles relevant to market niches that considered to be essential.

The brand also continued its focus on digital marketing tools, integrated new solutions that feature usability and relevance to the business of our customers.

TH Clothes has continued to play a strong role in social responsibility by maintaining its partnership with AMI by donating part of the sales of the entire Ankara range. It continued to integrate the ColorAdd language, a system that allows colour-blind people to identify colours.

In 2018, TH Clothes took a stance of solidity and confidence. It reinforced its permanent stock, intensified its range of colours in a sustained way and introduced 5 new articles that it considered essential in the promotional markets.

It also strengthened its role in social responsibility by establishing a new partnership with the HOPE Foundation for Women and Children of Bangladesh with the aim of building a new medical centre that will provide general / primary health, maternal health, child care and is to be the reference centre for the following specialized care at HOPE Hospital: obstetric fistula repair, lip / palate cleft repair, reconstructive burns surgery and will also serve as an outpost for research programs. It has also become a member of the Fair Wear Foundation, a certification confirming its collaboration with the manufacturers for a constant improvement in working conditions.

For 2019, the brand sought to revolutionize its range of colours introducing 10 new colours in the main articles of its most important ranges, with special highlight to the 6 pastel colours. It also presented 7 new articles endowed with premium design in order to respond effectively to the demands of the markets and also to maintain its modern and cosmopolitan image.

For 2020, TH Clothes presents its own range of workwear plus a unique sweatshirt article. The brand is now able to respond to different market demands with its singular touch of design, elegance and usability.

COOL SWEATS

Sweatshirts have been a part of our daily lives for decades.

They are the perfect piece of clothing for different environments and purposes. Their heating capacity, comfort and versatility are perfect features to make them an important part of many uniforms. On the other hand, these same features also make them desirable for less formal and more relaxed environments.

For a very cool style, just wear it with jeans or shorts. Many designers often have new versions of sweatshirts in their autumn/winter collections, making them a must-have of the season.

The hooded version dates back to the style introduced in medieval Europe by the monks in their work abroad. In New York, workers wore them in lower temperature environments.

The success of the hood was confirmed later in 1970 with the explosion of Hip-Hop and urban culture. Today, its success is reflected by the widespread use in many different environments and sports, from festivals to extreme sports.

IMAGINED & DESIGNED IN PORTUGAL

The Portuguese DNA is well recognized in the world of textiles. Its success story dates back to the sixteenth century with construction of the sails used by Portuguese ships. Since that time, the quality of construction and the design of Portuguese brands is appreciated all over the world. Today, the Portuguese textiles mean flexibility, speed, consolidated knowledge and innovation. Based on these assumptions, TH Clothes continues the strong focus on product quality and extending its ranges towards a future marked by differentiation and added value at various levels. In 2020, the brand again shows clear signs that its bet on items of exemplary elegance and quality is to maintain, introducing workwear collection featuring; an apron, an workwear jacket and one coat, a vest, a NEW sweatshirt and a uniform; Bratislava and Tallin.

PORTUGUESE DNA

TH Clothes has been building a path full of successes and its recognition in the European markets is already a reality. Like our ancestors, we are committed to conquering the world, leveraged by our perseverance, resilience and conviction that what we are building is something that fully reflects the Portuguese DNA, once a people full of determination and unshakeable beliefs, likewise the “Descobrimentos” era. TH Clothes is growing to be one of the references in promotional markets and it was precisely these values that cemented its range of articles and the global set of tools that we made available to our customers. The growth in both domestic and international markets reflects this and reveals that the focus on quality, elegance, detail and differentiation has been and will continue to be right.

AMI was founded in 1984, with Men at the centre of all its concerns. Since 1987, it has worked in 82 countries around the world, sending hundreds of volunteers and tons of aid (medicines and medical equipment, food, clothes, cars, generators, etc.). In the international area, AMI develops three main types of interventions: Emergency Missions, Development Missions with expatriated teams and International Projects in Partnership with Local Organizations (PIPLO), aiming to adapt its action to the characteristics and needs of the context, assuming to this end a phased intervention, always having the ultimate goal, the sustainability of the development process.

AMI's Solidarity Adventure is a project that allows the direct collaboration of participants in the life of communities, providing them a better future. It is an opportunity to financially support a cause or a project and thus contribute significantly to improving the living conditions of a community with major difficulties. It is the possibility of knowing the daily reality of a remote and isolated area: the way people live, their culture, their problems and work on solutions.

The main objectives of AMI's Solidarity Adventure are:

- to finance development projects;
- to promote the settlement of populations, improving access to health, education / knowledge, entrepreneurship and thus preventing migrations;
- to travel and establish bridges between cultures, allowing the exchange of ideas and mutual knowledge, fundamental foundations for peace in the World.

The areas of projects developed contribute to the Sustainable Development Objectives (SDO) and essentially cover: Health, Education, Environment and Citizenship.

Now underway:

Project: School of Gá-Bacar

Location: San Juan Sector, Bolama Region

Teaching: Preschool until the 6th year

Direct Beneficiaries: 146 people

138 students (72 boys and 66 girls) + 8 teachers
(4 men and 4 women)

Indirect beneficiaries: the families and communities of the students who attend this school.
